Lucinda Longo Promoted to Vice President of Connecticut Mutual Holding Company

Lucinda (Cindy) T. Longo has been promoted to Vice President of Connecticut Mutual Holding Company (CMHC). Cindy started with Litchfield Bancorp in 1986 and moved up through the ranks of the Litchfield Bancorp retail banking system holding positions of Senior Teller, Head Teller, Branch Manager of the Bantam Branch and ultimately Branch Manager of the Litchfield Bancorp Main Office. Cindy held the title of Assistant Secretary and was promoted to Assistant Vice President in 1990.

In 2001 Litchfield Bancorp and Northwest Community Bank formed Connecticut Mutual Holding Company and Cindy became Assistant Vice President and Operations Manager for CMHC. Cindy was instrumental in consolidating the Operations of both banks.

CMHC President and CEO Stephen Reilly states, "Cindy is highly regarded by management and department heads. She consistently emphasizes the importance of teamwork in her department and at CMHC." He adds, "Her promotion is well deserved."

Cindy is an Accredited ACH Professional (AAP) and graduated from the Connecticut School of Finance and Management in 1991.

Cindy has been active in agriculture trade and educational organizations, as a member of Farm/Owner Cabot Cheese, Agri-mark Milk Co-op, National & New England Brown Swiss Association, National Holstein Association, National Dairy Shrine and Young Dairy Leaders Alumni Association. She is a member of Litchfield Congregational Church. Cindy is a resident of Warren, CT.

Connecticut Mutual Holding Company consists of three separate and independent banks: Collinsville Savings Society, Litchfield Bancorp and Northwest Community Bank. Established in 2001, the mutual holding company was formed to preserve the unique qualities of the member banks and preserve their ability to better meet the needs of the communities they serve. Each affiliate bank retains its name and state charter. Each bank's Board of Directors and senior management staff oversee the operations of their respective banks.
